About Our Soloists

Dr. Bráulio Bosi, guitar

Born in Colatina, Espirito Santo, Brazil he has been playing guitar for 15 years, starting at the age of 13. Bráulio has won multiple instrumental awards and performed in many venues, theater productions, festivals and concerts throughout Brazil and the United States.

Like most young guitarists he started out playing Rock music on Electric Guitar with his high school band before falling in love with the art of Classical Guitar.

Beginning his formal musical study at the Federal University of Espirito Santo in Brazil with a Bachelor's degree in Music Education, Bráulio continued on with a full ride scholarship to complete a Master's degree at Oklahoma City University and a Doctor of Musical Arts at the University of Missouri - Kansas City, both in Guitar Performance.

Dr. Bosi researches in the field of performing arts medicine and has co-authored a book on musician's health entitled "The Musician's Health in Focus: Multiple Perspectives" as well as a published dissertation and multiple articles on the same topic of an injury free career.

Bráulio is currently the guitar instructor at the prestigious Conservatory of Music and Dance of the University of Missouri - Kansas City. You can follow him at:
